ชื่อเรื่อง: Scholarship Opportunities at East-West Center & October 18 Information Session

Dear Partners,

I am writing to share exciting news of East-West Center (EWC) scholarship opportunities with students and professionals in the Indo-Pacific region.

The East-West Center offers scholarships for graduate study at the University of Hawai'i. EWC scholarships include a dynamic residential experience with innovative programming to develop the leadership skills and regional literacy needed to address today's complex global challenges. Across all of our scholarship and affiliation programs, we currently have 300+ students from over 40 countries, 20 U.S. states, and 80 academic disciplines.

EWC is currently recruiting for:

- EWC Graduate Degree Fellowship: Two years of funding for masters or PhD study in any academic field at the University of Hawai'i for candidates with academic excellence, leadership potential and a commitment to positive change in the Indo Pacific region. RT airfare not included but additional need-based scholarship funds are available to help cover these costs. Funded by EWC.

The Asian Development Bank–Japan Scholarship (ADB–JSP)

→ The Asian Development Bank-Japan Scholarship program provides full scholarship support for Master's degree study in ADB-JSP approved fields of study at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and for participation in the educational, residential, and leadership development programs at the East-West Center. The scholarship includes round-trip airfare from home country, full tuition and fees, housing at the East-West Center, a book allowance, health insurance and a monthly stipend.

ADB-JSP was established to strengthen human resource capacity in Asian Development Bank developing member countries. After completing their studies, scholars are expected to return to their home countries to apply and share their new knowledge and skills to promote socioeconomic development.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Be a citizen and current resident of a developing member country of the Asian Development Bank and not more than 35 years old at the time of application.
- Have a 4-year bachelor's degree or the equivalent of a 4-year Bachelor's degree, at the time of application. Have at least 2 years of full-time professional work experience after a university degree at the time of application.
- Applicants must be living or working in their home country at the time of application and participation.

The following are eligible Master's degree programs that are funded by ADB-JSP at the East-West Center:

- Business Administration
- Economics
- Geography
- Natural Resources and Environmental Management
- Ocean and Resources Engineering
- Oceanography
- Pacific Island Studies
- Public Administration
- Sociology
- Tropical Plant and Soil Sciences
- Urban and Regional Planning

The deadline to apply:
December 1

Graduate Degree Fellowship

→ The East-West Center Graduate Degree Fellowship provides up to two years of master's or doctoral funding for graduate students from Asia, the Pacific, and the United States to participate in educational, cultural, residential community building, and leadership development programs at the East-West Center while pursuing graduate study at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UHM).

The East-West Center Graduate Degree Fellowship begins in early- to mid-August with the Community Building Institute (CBI), which includes time for advising and registration at the University of Hawai'i. All incoming EWC students are required to participate in this initial program, including those who are currently residing in Hawai'i.

EWC fellowships provide much more than funding. They equip and transform students into emerging leaders with the relationships and regional literacy required to meet the evolving demands of global change.

EWC graduate students live, learn, and work together, engaging in student-led programs that promote cross-cultural and interdisciplinary problem solving. Graduate Degree Fellows are a select cohort dedicated to academic excellence, public service, and positive change in the Indo-Pacific region.

The Graduate Degree Fellowship covers:

- General tuition and fees
- Housing
- Books
- Health insurance
- Modest living stipend

In addition to the merit-based fellowship, supplemental funding is available on a need basis.
