Dear Esteemed Colleagues,

I hope this message finds you well. On behalf of the International Association of University Presidents (IAUP), I would like to invite you to attend the 20th IAUP Triennial Conference hosted in Beijing, China, scheduled for October 13-15, 2024. The conference's theme is "AI and the Future of Higher Education."

Since its inception in 1965, IAUP has been at the forefront of uniting university leaders and institutions with the shared mission of leveraging higher education for global betterment across approximately 100 countries. The IAUP Triennial Conference is a highly esteemed event that brings together prominent higher education leaders, intellectuals, and scholars from around the world to explore critical issues and developments in higher education.

Why attend?

Global Network Access: Connect with an expansive global network, including over 2,000 university presidents, to foster significant partnerships and engage in productive networking sessions specifically designed for MOU and partnership agreements.

Market Access: Enjoy exclusive access to a vast array of Chinese and international universities, presenting an invaluable opportunity for international student recruitment.

High-Level Speakers in Educational AI: Engage directly with leading voices in AI and Education to explore innovative solutions and strategies to harness AI's potential within the educational sector.

Science & Technology Forum: Participate in forward-thinking discussions on the latest advancements in science and technology and their implications for higher education.

Site Visits: Experience different parts of China and educational excellence firsthand through organized visits.

Best Season of the Year: Delight in Beijing's autumnal beauty, making it the perfect time for both intellectual and cultural exploration. Taste the authentic Chinese food and culture.

Hosting IAUP Events Opportunities: Learn how your institution can host future IAUP events, further elevating your global presence.

Discounts on Registration and Membership fees: Benefit from significant savings with early bird registration. Non-members can save up to $800 USD, with a special rate of $2780 USD for a 3-year membership and early bird registration fee ($1580 for lower-income countries as per the World Bank classification). Dear distinguished partners, Greetings from Sias University, we hope this email finds you well.

We are delighted to inform you that our university will host the highly anticipated 20th International Association of University Presidents (IAUP) Triennial Conference 2024 from October 13th to October 15th, in Beijing, China.

The conference will feature a series of keynote speeches, panel discussions, and workshops led by renowned experts from around the world. We are anticipating about 1000 university leaderships and international educators from all over the world, including many Chinese universities. This will be a great opportunity to expand your global collaborations and help your international students recruitment.

As a valued partner and a close collaborator with our university, we are glad to extend a special invitation to your institution to participate in this prestigious event. Your institution will enjoy lowest registration rates as IAUP members. Please register as IAUP Member & Parter Institution to secure the benefits.

The attachment includes the detailed conference program and the invitation letter from Chairman Dr. Shawn Chen. We encourage you to mark your calendar and secure the early birds benefits at your earliest convenience. You can find more information from the conference website here <https://triennial2024.iaup.org>.

If you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to this exciting event and discussing how we can continue to strengthen our collaboration in the future.

Warm regards,
