All in-person attendees of ICERI2024 are invited to go on a tour of this charismatic city, led by highly qualified art historians, giving them the opportunity to see Seville's beauty and learn about its traditions.

Seville is the biggest city in the southern Spanish region of Andalusia and enjoys good weather all year round. The home of the world's biggest gothic cathedral and three World Heritage sites, it boasts ancient architecture and a fascinating history. The famous traditional tapas dishes also first originated in this region, as did the Spanish flamenco dance.

Sign up for the tour at the registration desk on your arrival to the conference and your place will be booked.
