The main objectives of this event are:

- To foster a diversified network between student bodies, NGO(s) and companies through the sharing of thoughts, insights, and information about student volunteerism;
- To increase awareness and understanding of current issues regarding sustainable volunteerism by focusing on RECONSA's subthemes through the sharing of insights by guest speakers;
- Transforming RECONSA's insights into impactful sustainable real-world applications, fostering sustainable progress for the community.

The details of this conference are as follows:

Date: 17th - 20th January 2025 (Friday - Monday)

Venue: Universiti Teknologi PETRONAS, Seri Iskandar, Perak, Malaysia

Targeted Participants: University Students Ranging from 15-24 years old, Local and International

We are thrilled to invite your institution's to participate by sending at least one team of delegates to our upcoming conference. Your involvement would significantly enrich this platform, dedicated to fostering and enhancing students' activism skills. Our goal is to inspire and empower the next generation of leaders to make a lasting impact within their communities and beyond, especially in sustainable volunteering. Through valuable global networking, delegates will have the chance to connect with peers from around the world, collaborate with leading NGOs, and gain insights into transformative initiatives. The conference will also offer engaging talks by experienced professionals, hands-on activities, and cultural exploration, creating a comprehensive experience that blends education with meaningful engagement. We encourage your volunteerism clubs to bring a team that can showcase sustainable projects they have successfully implemented, contributing to this dynamic exchange of ideas.
